

The Association of Clinical Electron Microscopists

Programme: Draft date 08.02.2016

ACEM (www.acem.org.uk) /Renal Pathology meeting at Nottingham Pathology 2016

Thursday 30 June 2016, East Midlands Conference Centre

08.00am Registration

Joint Renal and ACEM session – programme organised by Professor Ian Roberts, Oxford

08.30-09.30 “I learned something new from that case”

Five 12 minute presentations of educational renal biopsies

Candice Roufosse, London

Natalie Brearley, Portsmouth

Katrina Wood, Newcastle

Ranmith Perera, London

Ian Roberts, Oxford

09.30-10.00 Autosomal dominant tubulointerstitial kidney disease

Terry Cook, London

10.00-10.30 Banff 2015 report

Candice Roufosse, London

10.30-10.50 Coffee

10.50-11.10 RCPATH/Renal Registry issues

Mike Sheaff, London

11.10-12.00 Renal EQA

Ian Roberts, Oxford

12.00-12.30 Renal Transplant EQA

Desley Neil, Birmingham

12.30 Lunch

ACEM session – programme organised by Mr Bart Wagner, Sheffield

13:30 Competency in Renal EM and How Best to Achieve it?

A Personal Reflection.

Bart Wagner, Chief Biomedical Scientist, Sheffield

14:00 The Role of EM in Ophthalmic Pathology

Dr Hardeep Mudhar, Consultant in Ophthalmic Pathology, Head of Nationally Commissioned Service, Sheffield.

The Association of Clinical Electron Microscopists

- 14:30 Paediatric Pathology Miscellanea
Glenn Anderson,
Great Ormond Street Hospital for Children, London
- 15.00 Afternoon drink break
- 15.30 Short presentation – To be arranged
- 15.50 Group photograph and ACEM meeting registration
- 16.00 ACEM AGM